Two of Cripple Creek's three daily newspapers, which were burned out, appeared as usual this morning with full accounts of the fire. A conservative estimate made to-day fixes the entire loss at $850,000. The number of people rendered homeless is placed at 3,000. The larger portion of these people walked the streets all of Saturday night. To-day accommodations were secured in the shape of tents and frame sheds, and to-night the army of homeless will enjor a well-earned rest.

A Militiaman's Happy Return from Jail to Home. It was the privilege of the Journal yesterday to pay the fine that had been cruelly imposed upon Henry H. Lazaurs, of Company C, Ninth Regiment, and which, through his inability to pay, had separated him from his wife and baby, and left the mother and child in abject poverty and with no food in the house .
